3. About the school

Philosophy

Baldwin Boys' is rooted in Christian values and holistic education. It aims to shape boys into "confident, responsible, and morally grounded men". It develops character as well as intellect, balancing academics, physical fitness, spiritual growth and psychological well-being. Approach: student-centred learning, producing global citizens with social responsibility. Discipline, punctuality and respect are built into daily school life.

History (summary)

- Named after founder and philanthropist John Baldwin of Berea, Ohio, USA. The name Baldwin is of German origin meaning "Bold Winner".
- It began on Alexandra Street, Bangalore, to provide schooling for English-speaking Methodist children.
- The school faced funding shortages and falling enrolment, and was on the verge of closure. A donation of three thousand dollars from John Baldwin saved it; the money was used to buy land and buildings.
- It has since grown steadily in infrastructure and reputation, and in the 21st century offers a multi-dimensional, holistic approach that bridges theory and practice.

Vision

To nurture young minds into compassionate, disciplined and innovative leaders, in a supportive but challenging environment where every student reaches their fullest potential academically, socially and morally. It inspires lifelong learning and responsibility, and builds integrity, perseverance and teamwork.

Mission

To foster academic excellence, character development and leadership in young men, in an inclusive and nurturing environment that produces critical thinkers, responsible citizens and compassionate leaders.

House system

Seven houses: Andersen, Weston, Oldham, Richard, Toussaint, Pfeiffer, Buttrick. (The website lists the names only; house colours and rules are not given.)
